Good morning, Max. Could you be a dear and sell some patches of flour? We need five gold pieces for supper.		When Max exits from his bedroom, his Mother will give him a daily task.
The flour should be on the stool over there. I hope you don't mind helping me out a bit.
Don't leave without the flour, dear.
Safe travels, my son. Please be back before the sun falls.
I shouldn't be here.
I'm sorry, but this area is off-limits. Please turn back.
It's morning. I still have a lot of time to spare.		Max can walk near a sun clock. The sun clock will change depending on the time in-game.
It's afternoon. I better not waste anymore time.		Max can walk near a sun clock. The sun clock will change depending on the time in-game.

It's night time. I better go home.		Max will stop in place. A fade out transition will occur, taking the player back to his home.
Hey there! Out selling flour again?	Cheerful
Sure, I can purchase these. Does 1 gold piece sounds good?		The player can decide to sell the flour for 1 gold piece or reject the offer.
Darn. Sorry about that, kid.	Disappointed
Pleasure doing business with you, kid. Here, you can take this.		After giving the farmer some flour, he will offer a bottle of milk.
I still finish my task.

Should I head back?		Max will stand in place as two options appears on screen: Stay for while or Return Home.
Hello. What can I do for you?
I appreicate the offer, but I have more than enough flour on my hands. I wish I can say the same for milk. We ran out just yesterday.	Despondent
This is exactly what I needed! Are you sure I can keep this? I appericate it, kid. Thank you! I know it's not much, but hopefully it'll do you some good.	Happy	After giving Sarah milk, she will give you another batch of flour that you can sell
Excuse me, but do you have any food or money to spare?	Soft-spoken	The player can decide to offer gold or the milk.
Bless your soul.	Soft-spoken
